

“Conference and workshop about invasive carnivores” Programme

Thursday 5 March, 2015

9:30 – 10:00 conference registration

10:00 – 12:00 morning block of presentations: Invasive carnivores and law

J. Šíma (Czech Republic): Legislation related to invasive carnivores in the Czech Republic, new EU legislation and its implementation in the Czech Republic

E. Gojdičová, I. Havranová (Slovakia): Legislation related to invasive carnivores in Slovakia, new EU legislation and its implementation in Slovakia

12:00 – 13:00 lunch break

13:00 – 15:00 afternoon block of presentations: Ecology of invasive carnivores 1

F. Drygala (Germany): Raccoon dogs – current project in Germany and its results

T. Kušta (Czech Republic): Changes in population and perspective of the racoon dog in the Czech Republic

J. Červený (Czech Republic): Changes in population and perspective of the racoon in the Czech Republic

15:00 – 15:30 coffee break, checking in to hotel rooms

15:30 – 17:30 evening block of presentations: Ecology of invasive carnivores 2

B. Michler (Germany): Raccoons - a new threat to indigenous species? Feeding ecology investigations in a German national park

J. Bagniewska (Poland): Semi-aquatic animals - how do they dive, and how do we know it?

L. Poledník, K. Poledníková (Czech Republic): The American Mink in the Czech Republic

17:30 – 18:30 dinner

from 19:00 – wine tasting of local wines in the hotel wine bar

Friday 6 March, 2015

8:00 – 9:00 breakfast

9:30 – 13:00 workshop, coffee break

13:00 – 14:00 lunch

from 14:00 field trip to project study areas

Conference and workshop are part of a project called NEOVISION II. For more information about the project see <http://neovision.vtaky.sk/> or www.alkawildlife.eu.